SUBJECTIVE

Mike reported a worsening cough over the past week and suspects a chest infection. He also mentioned a recent head injury and requested an appointment due to symptoms persisting despite self-managing a cold.

OBJECTIVE

Appointment scheduled for 8:00 AM tomorrow. Receptionist confirmed availability and noted Mike's preference for morning hours despite work conflicts.

ASSESSMENT

Mike's symptoms suggest possible respiratory infection; timely medical assessment required. A head injury was also reported and should be evaluated for potential complications. No immediate risks identified during conversation.

PLAN

Confirmed 8.00 AM appointment for tomorrow to address both the chest infection and head injury. Follow-up care coordination to be managed by medical team.

PARTICIPANT VOICE

Expressed clear preference for morning appointment despite work schedule. Demonstrated proactive approach to managing health concerns, including self-management of cold and seeking care for new symptoms.
