SUBJECTIVE

Sarah reported feeling okay but acknowledged difficulty getting out of the house. She expressed progress in attending the shops twice and using the bus, though noted anxiety during the bus trips. She also mentioned a slight head injury occurred during the supported activity.

OBJECTIVE

Sarah successfully used the bus twice this week, sat near the front during a crowded trip, and identified the need for assistance with grocery list organization for future outings. A slight head injury was observed during the supported activity.

ASSESSMENT

Sarah demonstrated progress toward community participation goals but experienced anxiety during public transport. The support worker noted the crowded bus incident, the head injury during the activity, and identified the need for additional support with grocery list planning and monitoring for any effects from the injury.

PLAN

Continue using the bus for outings, address grocery list organization support, and monitor anxiety levels during public transport. Include regular checks for any residual effects from the head injury and adjust support as needed. Focus on maintaining community participation and safety.

PARTICIPANT VOICE

Sarah expressed willingness to try bus travel despite anxiety and identified practical needs (e.g., grocery list support) for future outings. She also mentioned the head injury occurred during the activity.
